

Project #2

In this project you will generate scatter plots. Looking at the Math student test data, you are going to compare columns age, health and free time against the math score G1.

Write a 3 page paper with your results. Explain what we can learn from the scatter plots (if anything). Write clearly for a non-technical audience.

This is due the end of week 12.